

Colonel Megan P. Tatu

Biographical Summary

Colonel Megan P. Tatu was born in Los Angeles, California. She is a graduate of the University of California at Los Angeles where she earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Political Science and was commissioned through ROTC as a Signal Corps Second Lieutenant. COL Tatu received a Masters in Strategic Studies from the U.S. Army War College.

Her active duty assignments include signal platoon leader, 2/57 Air Defense Artillery Battalion, Ansbach, Germany; Executive Officer, Delta Company, 11th Air Defense Signal Battalion, Kaiserslautern, Germany; Battalion Motor Officer, 5th Signal Battalion, Ft. Polk, Louisiana; Chief, Testing Management, Military Entrance and Processing Station, Los Angeles, California.

COL Tatu's Reserve assignments include Administrative/Community Relations Officer, 302D Public Affairs Detachment; Commander, 222D Public Affairs Detachment; Assistant Inspector General, 311th Corps Support Command; Division Chief, Reserve Personnel, 63D Regional Support Command; Commander, 1291st Logistic Support Battalion, 2nd Brigade (Field Exercise), 91st Division (Exercise); Chief, Individual Training and Assistant Deputy Chief of Staff, Training, 63D Regional Support Command; Deputy Chief of Staff, G3, 63D Regional Readiness Command.

Her military education includes the Signal Officer Basic Course, Signal Officer Advanced Course, Command and General Staff College and the Army War College. Her awards include the Meritorious Service Medal, Army Commendation Medal, Joint Services Achievement Medal, Army Achievement Medal, Army Reserve Component Achievement Medal, National Defense Service Medal, Armed Forces Reserve Medal, Army Service Ribbon, Overseas Service Ribbon, and the Army Reserve Component Overseas Training Ribbon.

COL Tatu is married to Michael Tatu and has three sons; Glendon, Colin and Shane.